2019 Programme

Nov 16 th	AGM and Christmas Lunch (and challenge) See below for details
Dec 5 th	Llysfasi College Christmas Fair. 12 to 7pm, Thursday. Please let us know if you can come along and demonstrate for some or all of the time.
Dec 14 th	Get Away from Christmas (NOTE 2nd Saturday)

I have added the guild's accounts for the year and minutes of last AGM to this newsletter. I'll bring along a few spare copies but it'll be a great help if everyone could bring their own copy along if they wish, or be prepared to share!

Our last official meeting of the year. In the morning we will be holding our AGM (as quickly as possible so that we can get on with festive meal). Please bring a contribution to add to the eatables, plates and cutlery and a mug to eat with. Gill is going to stump us with a quiz again, so bring a pen! This years challenge is Winter warmers (especially gloves or mittens!) so bring along something for our display. We'll also have a Secret Santa so if you'd like to join in, bring along a small wrapped gift (£4 max. value).

The information pack for the 2020 Association exhibition is now available. I have forwarded it to those on email and will bring a copy along with me to the meeting. This one will be close enough for visiting so please think about submitting a piece for the free or juried sections. Photos and a small sample are required for judging. If people would like help with photographing work, I can perhaps do a small workshop one meeting?

Please contact Chris if you have anything of interest for the newsletter
